

NOMINEES

Rachel Abernathy
Boluwatife Akinyemi
Elizabeth Avila
Tiffany Aycock
Zahra Bahrani-Mostafavi
Melanie Bannout
Chimere Bell
Marjorie Benbow
Deborah Buckley
Tsu Yu Chen
Lillian Chie
Katherine Clark
Karen Cross
Debra Daise
Daniela Dal Pra
Brenna Doering
Alexis Eaddy
Emily Edwards
Liz Farnham
Caroline Fourrier
Daviana Fraser
Aliyah Gadson
Anna Gelich
Kathy Giddings
Laurene Gonzales
Shreya Goyal
Maggie Habeeb
Rania Hamdan
Yerin Heo
Jane Houston
Caitlin Kelly

Maryam Khabazi
Karoline Kiefel
Rin Kobayashi
Christy Luce
Mary Lou Maher
Sidrah Marotti
Johanna Mayer
Natalia Mejia
Elizabeth Miller
Erika Miller
Fatemeh Mirzaei
Misty Morin
Isabelle Nilsson
Bianca Potrykus
Jordan Rizzo
Shanya Robinson
Sarah Siddique
Bao-Hua Song
Selena Stewart
Elina Sukaryavichute
Jordan Sutton
Alexia Taft
Tamara Tanis
Elizabeth Tate
Yvonne Tiandem-Adamou
Sandra Atilano Valtierra
Jeanna Williams
Tamara Williams
Ginger Wyrick
Yukiko Yokono
Diane Zablotsky

We thank you for joining us on this day of celebration!

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY AT UNC CHARLOTTE

MARCH 27
2018

Welcome

Dr. Christina Sanchez
Associate Director, Office of International Programs

History and Recognition of 2018 Honorees

Elizabeth Moore
Coordinator, Office of Global Education and Engagement

Global Gateways Video

Brenna Doering
Graduate Assistant, Office of Global Education and Engagement

The Charlotteans: UNC Charlotte's Women's Glee Club

Directed by Ginger Wyrick

Al Shlosha D'Varim by Allan E. Naplan

Reel A' Bouche, Traditional French Canadian song, arranged by Malcolm Dalglish

Women Can Make a Difference Everywhere

Ama Mundi, Mathematics Educator and Activist
Introduced by Dr. Joe Hoff, Director of Office of Global Education and Engagement

Thank You & Closing

Reception to Follow

AMA
MUNDI

Ms. Ama Mundi served the nation of Cameroon for 20 years as a high-ranking female official for the government, in the education sector. Politically, Ms. Mundi is an activist for democracy and inclusive social change, co-founding the Cameroon Women's Networking Association (CAWNA) and leading the Cameroon Women's NGO delegation. She is passionate about mathematics and making higher education accessible to everyone, as evidenced by currently working on launching a math community tutoring program.